I'm imitating

I have comment issues

I want attention however my own isn't enough my fetish is abundance wealth + feel thy self suspension is to uplift, why does school focus on to push down suppress the tension to no end, no start, simply be on out and retard of conscious potential, a hollow cause of empty full credentials.

All I care about is my sex, self, & to be simple in all perceptions of what we are giving when we lie in what's complex, as a pig sty or rather a horse voice from screaming internally "what the fuck? is "it"? what is a limit? Dirty is my mind, cleaning is the job of more than convicts, women, & supposed detox specialists. I've got a special list for some lusty balance centers, I am the president of nothing, presiding under everyone and I'm over every thing that isn't ~~Not~~ Natural, sex, & is convoluted synt of us in a electrode prayer circle reading out loud to ourselves

Dead phones, full interaction, correct, put refraction of center town gotta load them memes, computerized emotional slashes of the Typas Agony, I did night see the coming, back from the future we coming,
